MASONS OBSERVE ANCIENT RITES

Brilliant Musical Program Marks Closing Night of Spring Reunion.

Never in the history of Scottish Rite Masonry in the South has there been any meeting more inspiring or more calculated to give dignity and prestige to the order than the spring reunion that closed with a magnificent banquet at the Masonic Temple last night. The degrees were conferred upon a large number of candidates, who expressed themselves as delighted with the beauty of the ceremony. The thing that contributed most to the pleasure of the brethren was the really great music rendered by the Scottish Rite choir. To Director Joseph P. White, who, upon short notice and with few rehearsals, worked up the finest musical program ever heard in the South upon a similar occasion, is due in large measure the magnificent success of this feature of the program.

Some of the most brightly accented musical numbers were "I've Waited for the Lord" (Mendelssohn), sung by Mrs. Monell, Miss Robinson and chorus; "Oh, Rest in the South" (Mendelssohn), by Miss Pattie Isaacs; "Incline Thine Ear" (Hummel), Mr. Bryant and chorus; "With All Your Hearts" (from "Milk and Honey" by Gounod), by the quartet; and several of the male quartet numbers.

Mrs. Monell, who recently moved to Richmond, thrilled the hearts of all who heard her, and Miss Robinson, Miss Isaacs and Mr. Bryant delighted old friends and won many new ones.

The feature of the closing session was the presentation of a portrait of General Albert Pike by Dr. E. N. Callicott, pastor of the Episcopal church, who, after a brief address, presented the portrait of the great leader of the Confederate army. The portrait was a reproduction of the original, which was presented to the Confederate government by General Pike. DOUGLE ELECTION OF SUPERVISORS

Children's Playgrounds Delayed by Political Struggle in Committee for City Jobs.

Whether it would be better to elect a white or a colored man as caretaker for the playground for colored children, which is about to be established on Moore Street, in Lee Ward, is a question which is giving the Committee on Grounds and Buildings a great deal of concern, many of the members believing that either horn of the dilemma may prove to be dangerous. The matter came up last night at the end of a brief session of the committee, and was, on motion of Mr. Don Leavy, referred to the Subcommittee on Playgrounds, composed of Messrs. Buford, Melton and Don Leavy. The subcommittee has no power to act finally, but will report nominations for one male and one female caretaker to the next meeting of the full committee.

Mr. Watkins, of Clay Ward, brought the question up, expressing his views in no uncertain tones. He declared that though he favored putting white people in all positions which it was proper for them to hold, yet he could not understand how a white man could consent to compete for the place in question, which plainly to his mind should go to a colored person. Mr. Watkins said that if no white man was in the race, he would nominate Walter Matthews, colored. The sentiment of a majority of the committee seemed to be with Mr. Watkins. The motion for reference carried the question over, its merits not having been passed upon. All the other business disposed of was of a routine nature, and aroused but little interest among the members.

WILLIAMS SPEAKS TO UNDERTAKERS

Health Commissioner Urges Accurate Returns of Vital Statistics.

W. J. Morrisette, of Manchester, was yesterday morning elected president of the Virginia Funeral Directors' Association. Other officers elected were Charles L. Morris, Petersburg, first vice-president; C. W. Alexander, Waynesboro, second vice-president; J. R. Williams, Norfolk, third vice-president; J. H. O'Connor, Portsmouth, fourth vice-president; R. M. Johnson, Culpeper, fifth vice-president; James Perley, Charlottesville, treasurer, and L. T. Christian, of this city, secretary. Delegates to the national convention at Portland, Oregon, next October: H. A. W. Cox, Bridgewater; C. W. Alexander, Waynesboro; E. J. Sudduth, Warrenton; M. M. Price, Tumbach, Oregon.

The afternoon session was given up to the discussion of general topics of interest to the profession. State Health Commissioner Dr. Ennion G. Williams, spoke on the registration of deaths and the importance of having the law in this respect strictly adhered to, especially on account of compiling statistics in regard to the various diseases.

The Health Department in its work is largely dependent upon this as a basis for its calculations. A technical lecture of great interest to the members of the convention was made by Professor A. Rhenouard, of New York, one of the most distinguished embalmers in the United States. A speech was also delivered by the Rev. D. C. MacLachlan, pastor of the Seventh Street Presbyterian church.

At today's session, which will be the last of the convention, the discussions and lectures will be continued. The meeting will close with the selection of the place of meeting for the twenty-third annual convention, to be held about this time next year.

FIRE ON FREE BRIDGE

Wooden Beams of Ancient Structure Resist Efforts of Incendiary.

Fire believed to have been of incendiary origin was discovered late Wednesday night on the Free Bridge by a street car crew, who turned in an alarm. Firemen found a ladder and boat underneath the bridge, and it is supposed that somebody set fire, leaving the boat on the bridge, and on a gang plank, or by means of the rocks. The fire did not gain much headway, but might have been serious had it not been discovered in time. Besides the wooden floor beams and stringers there are wooden props under the weaker spans.

Mr. Pollard Not to Run

Robert N. Pollard, who was a candidate for the House of Delegates in the primary two years ago, has decided not to enter the race again. He has been urged to do so by his friends. Mr. Pollard announced yesterday that his chief reason for not running was that he was not sure of his health. He has been suffering from a long illness, and he is not sure that he is strong enough to run.

Take Future Treatment

W. L. Morgan, of Newport News, and E. L. Lipscomb, of this city, who were bitten by a supposedly rabid dog Wednesday night, have entered a course of treatment at the Pasteur Institute. No unfavorable symptoms have developed, and Dr. Hoan regards the case as a success. The dog has not been found, but his actions are taken as showing conclusively that he was suffering from the disease when he attacked the men.

NO COLLISION AMONG BODERS

Street Committee Exonerates Contractor Clay of Intentional Wrong-Doing.

The Council Committee on Streets last night adopted a resolution from a subcommittee composed of Aldermen Powers and Olman and Councilmen Ferguson, exonerating Maynard & Ford of any wrong-doing in the matter of employing another contractor to do some work for which they received the award. The subject was brought to the attention of the committee at a recent meeting by Councilman Richards, of Marshall Ward, an investigation by the subcommittee named above having followed. It appears that S. E. Clay was a competitive bidder for certain street work in the East End. He asked that his bid be withdrawn after it and others had been opened. The request was granted, and Clay was being let to Maynard & Ford, who were the next lowest bidders. The successful firm then employed Clay to do a part of the work. They testified before the committee that there had been no collusion or understanding; that they did not know of the withdrawal of Clay's bid at the time he was employed; and that the latter was simply hired by them and not given the work as a subcontractor. The statements of Clay were to the same effect. The subcommittee recommending that the matter be dismissed, which recommendation was promptly adopted by the full committee. The meeting was a protracted one, a great mass of routine business being disposed of.

WOUNDED MAN IS UNDER ARREST

Stanley Williams Charged With Attempting Entrance to Neighbor's Feed House.

Stanley Williams, who was shot early Wednesday morning, was placed under arrest in a hospital to which he had been taken for treatment, on a warrant charging him with trespassing on the premises of E. H. Plippen, and attempting to break into his feedhouse. Mr. Plippen fired at an intruder when he heard a noise at his feedhouse door, and is now believed firmly by him and the police that Williams was the man. The latter declared an investigation into the matter while he was on the street, but shot found in a fence near the feedhouse led to his arrest. He is now in the city jail hospital. He is married and has several children. Williams has a police record, having been sentenced to the penitentiary for an aggregate of seven years on various charges. It was thought that he had reformed, for he was at work, and had a team of his own. He was called in Police Court yesterday morning, but owing to his injuries, the case was continued to May 23.
